

PICKS OF THE DAY

Herbie Fully Loaded (CyBC-1, 21.15) Young college graduate Maggie Peyton (Lindsay Lohan) secretly longs to race like her father (Michael Keaton) and grandfather in NASCAR. However, when Maggie ends up receiving an antique, '63 Volkswagen Beetle with a mind of its own, for her graduation present, a series of unimaginable events follow. Directed by Angela Robinson in 2005.

I Love you, Man (novacinema1, 18.35) The most important things in Peter Klaven's life are his work in Real Estate and his fiancé Zoey (Rashida Jones). However, when Zoey gets excited about the wedding and instantly starts planning with her friends, Peter (Paul Rudd) stands at a disadvantage - he has no male friends. So Peter sets out to make some. Directed by John Hamburg in 2009.

Open Window (Plus TV, 23.00) When a spontaneous act of violence shatters Izzy and Peter's relationship, their respective parents are also affected. Buried emotions from past tragic events eventually rise to the surface, causing the lives of all the people involved to take a complex turn. Robin Tunney and Joel Edgerton star. Directed by Mia Goldman in 2006.

State of Play

State of Play (novacinema1, 16.20) When a thief is gunned down and an American Congressman perishes in front of a subway train, they seem like unrelated tragic incidents. However, when two Washington Globe journalists set out to investigate they realise the deaths are linked. A dramatic thriller starring Russell Crowe, Ben Affleck and Rachel McAdams. Directed by Kevin Macdonald in 2009.
